

MIND IN CROYDON

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES, EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY POLICY

1. GENERAL STATEMENT

- 1.1. Mind in Croydon is committed to achieving equal opportunities in employment and the services it provides. No user of Mind in Croydon's services, employee, trustee, volunteer (throughout this document, the term volunteer will include trustees) or job applicant should receive less favourable treatment because of: - sex, colour, ethnic origin, age, race, disability or health condition, religion, sexual orientation, marital status, or any other criterion not relevant to the point at issue.
- 1.2. As an employer and provider of a service to the community, Mind in Croydon accepts the responsibility to promote equal opportunities and challenge discrimination wherever it occurs. This document sets out the main consequences of this commitment and the action to be taken in order to achieve equal opportunities.
- 1.3. It is the responsibility of all staff, volunteers and service users to ensure that no other service user, volunteer, trustee or employee receives less favourable treatment than any other on the grounds stated in Para. 1.1 of this policy.
- 1.4. Mind in Croydon recognises that some clients and users of its services may, because of their past or present distress or illness, say or do things which would otherwise be unacceptable and incompatible with Mind's Equal Opportunities Policy. Mind will do all it can to challenge such behaviour. In cases where intervention is possible an approach will be adopted which aims to alter attitudes and behaviour while maintaining support for the distressed client. A record will be kept of such situations.
- 1.5. Mind in Croydon recognises its obligations under the Equality Act 2010 with regard to employment and the reasonable adjustments it must make to ensure that people with protected characteristics are not discriminated against in recruitment or in the workplace. Mind in Croydon keeps all its policies under review to ensure that they do not discriminate against people.

2. RESPONSIBILITY

- 2.1. The Board of Mind in Croydon has overall responsibility for the effective operation of this policy. However, all employees, volunteers and service users have a duty as part of their involvement with Mind in Croydon to do everything they can to ensure that the policy works in practice.
- 2.2. Mind in Croydon will bring to the attention of all employees, job applicants, volunteers and service users the existence of this policy, and will provide such training as is necessary to ensure that the policy is effective and that everyone is aware of it. Reference to the policy should be included in contract documents with outside agencies.
- 2.3. Those responsible for recruiting volunteers to work in Mind in Croydon projects are responsible for ensuring that they are aware of Mind's Equal Opportunities Policy and adhere to it while working as Mind volunteers.

3. POSITIVE ACTION

3.1. Mind in Croydon believes that passive support for equal opportunities is not enough and that positive steps, within the law, shall be taken. Mind in Croydon is committed to:

- i) recognising and developing potential which has not been used before because of past discrimination and disadvantage.
- ii) encouraging access and applications from under-represented groups.

3.2. Every effort will be made to ensure that the services offered by Mind in Croydon reflect the composition of the community it serves and we will publish details of service user statistics by gender, age and ethnicity.

4. DEALING WITH COMPLAINTS

4.1. If any service user, volunteer or employee feels that they have been, or are being discriminated against, in any way, they are entitled to pursue the matter with either:

- i) their line manager in the case of staff
- ii) the equal opportunities officer
- iii) the manager/key worker of the project where the alleged discrimination occurred.

4.2. All instances or complaints of discriminatory behaviour will be treated seriously.

4.3. Complaints or allegations of an unfounded or malicious nature will also be treated as serious and may involve using the disciplinary procedure.

5. RECRUITMENT

5.1. In most circumstances, job vacancies will be advertised internally to encourage service users and volunteers to apply.

5.2. Mind in Croydon will ensure that job descriptions, person specifications and application forms reflect only the requirements of the job and do not imply sex or other stereotyping.

5.3. All advertisements will state that Mind in Croydon is seeking to be an effective equal opportunities employer. A copy of Mind in Croydon's Equal Opportunities Statement will form part of all application packs.

5.4. Mind in Croydon will take such positive steps, within the law, to redress imbalances in its work force.

5.5. Where Mind in Croydon proposes to use temporary staff it will, where possible, employ people with mental health problems or other disabilities in the hope that they may then be found long-term jobs in Mind in Croydon.

5.6. Application forms will make it clear that life experience as well as formal qualifications and work experience is valid.

5.7. In the interests of operating an effective Equal Opportunities Policy, Mind in Croydon will monitor certain information about job applicants. All such information will be treated as confidential and will be clearly separated from all processes concerned with the selection of staff.

6. TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES

6.1. Subject to the requirements of doing their job, employees will be encouraged to go on courses relevant to their present job or personal development.

6.2. Training courses will be non-residential and in working hours whenever possible.

6.3. It is the responsibility of every individual member of staff to participate in equal opportunities training that is provided.

7. WORKING CONDITIONS

7.1. Pregnancy

Mind in Croydon recognises that pregnant women may need changes to their work conditions and will consider sympathetically any requests for such changes.

7.2. Antenatal Care

Time off with pay will be given to both full and part-time pregnant employees to attend antenatal classes, including medical checks and relaxation/childbirth classes. Similar provision will be made for partners sharing responsibility for childcare to attend antenatal classes where necessary.

7.3. Flexible Hours and Job Sharing

Working hours and arrangements will, whenever possible, be flexible for both full and part-time employees. Requests for job sharing or part-time working to meet employees' needs for shorter hours will be sympathetically considered, subject to operational requirements.

7.4. Accessible Buildings

Mind in Croydon will endeavour to ensure, as far as is practicable, that all its premises are fully accessible. When considering new premises, every effort will be made to ensure such premises are fully accessible.

8. USE OF LANGUAGE

8.1. Staff, volunteers and service users will avoid and challenge the use of language which, in any way, belittles;

- i) disabled groups and/or individuals with special needs
- ii) any race, culture or religion
- iii) a person's sexual orientation
- iv) women and/or men
- v) a person's age

8.2. Where the language used has a personal impact on others, and it has been made clear to the person concerned that their use of such language is unwelcome and/or offensive, disciplinary action may be taken if they persist with it.

8.3. All materials used or developed by Mind in Croydon will be judged in the light of the promotion of equal opportunities, and those considered to be discriminatory will not be used.

9. SEXUAL HARASSMENT

9.1. No member of staff, volunteer or service user should be subject to sexual harassment.

9.2. This is interpreted as unwanted behaviour of a sexual nature including:

- i) verbal sexual abuse
- ii) physical contact
- iii) repeated remarks which an individual finds offensive

9.3. If it has been made clear to the person concerned that their behaviour is unwelcome and they persist with it, then the service user, volunteer or employee who is the recipient of the behaviour will be entitled to make a formal complaint.

10. EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES OFFICER/MONITORING OF POLICY

- 10.1. The reason for having an Equal Opportunities Officer is to advise, inform and consult with management, staff and service users in order to progress and improve equal opportunities within Mind in Croydon.
- 10.2. The person appointed to this role should be committed to progressing equal opportunities within Mind in Croydon in a positive manner.
- 10.3. The Equal Opportunities Officer will :
- i) Monitor and report on Mind in Croydon's equal opportunities progress, development and practice and make an annual report to the Board of Mind in Croydon.
 - ii) Ensure staff, service users' and volunteers' awareness and understanding of equal opportunities issues and practice within Mind in Croydon via training and development.
 - iii) Advise and consult with Mind in Croydon's Board and Finance and General Purposes Committees on equal opportunities to recommend and discuss courses of action.
 - iv) Know or have access to appropriate information, legislation, policy, etc. for the purposes of carrying out their role.
 - v) Identify and advise on any Mind in Croydon equal opportunities training needs and provision.
- 10.4. i) If the Equal Opportunities officer is a member of staff Mind in Croydon will allow adequate time off from his/her normal contracted duties to attend meetings and training events and perform this specific role. This time off will be negotiated with the Equal Opportunities Officer's line manager.
- ii) If the Equal Opportunities Officer is a trustee Mind in Croydon will encourage and pay the necessary expenses for him/her to attend meetings and training courses relevant to the role.
- 10.5. It is not intended that the Equal Opportunities Officer should represent particular views, opinions or interests of individuals or groups, nor have the authority within this role to discipline either staff or service users, or raise a grievance on behalf of a particular individual or group.
- 10.6. The Equal Opportunities Officer will be available in an advisory capacity in the case of a grievance involving equal opportunities issues.
- 10.7. The current Equal Opportunities Officer is :
- Tony Horton who is contactable at:
