

Mind in Croydon's Advocacy Service is looking for volunteers

Steering Group Volunteers Required

- Have you used Mind in Croydon's Advocacy Service, or any mental health advocacy service?
- Would you like to volunteer your time to participate in a steering group that will;
  - Monitor project activities against plans?
  - Review project processes and procedures
  - Provide vital feedback for the team from a service user perspective
- Would you be willing to attend at least 4 formal meetings a year?

Mind in Croydon's Advocacy Service is looking for volunteers to participate in a new steering group. If you would like to express your interest in this role we would like to hear from you.
